UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PORTIA MASON, an individual,
Plaintiff,

v.

SPROUT YANGBAN, LLC d/b/a YANGBAN, a California limited liability company; and DOES 1 to 10, inclusive,

Defendants.

CASE NO.:

COMPLAINT

1. VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990, 42
U.S.C. § 12181
2. VIOLATIONS OF THE UNRUH
CIVIL RIGHTS ACT,
CALIFORNIA CIVIL CODE § 51
DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff Portia Mason (hereafter “Plaintiff”) brings this action based upon personal knowledge as to herself and her own acts, and as to all other matters upon information and belief, based upon, inter alia, the investigations of her attorneys.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff is a visually impaired and legally blind individual who requires screen-reading software to read website content using her computer. Plaintiff uses the terms “blind” or “visually-impaired” to refer to all people with visual impairments who meet the legal definition of blindness in that they have a

1 visual acuity with correction of less than or equal to 20 x 200. Some blind people 2 who meet this definition have limited vision. Others have no vision.

3 2. Plaintiff brings this Complaint to secure redress against Sprout 4 Yangban, LLC d/b/a Yangban (hereafter “Defendant”), and DOES 1-10, for its 5 failure to design, construct, maintain, and operate its website to be fully and equally 6 accessible to and independently usable by Plaintiff. Defendant’s denial of full and 7 equal access to its website, and therefore denial of its products and services offered 8 thereby and in conjunction with its physical location, is a violation of Plaintiff’s 9 rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) and California’s Unruh 10 Civil Rights Act (“UCRA”).

11 3. Because Defendant’s website, <https://yangbanla.com/> (the “website” 12 or “Defendant’s website”), is not fully or equally accessible to blind and visually 13 impaired consumers in violation of the ADA, Plaintiff seeks a permanent injunction 14 to cause a change in Defendant’s corporate policies, practices, and procedures so 15 that Defendant’s website will become and remain accessible to Plaintiff.

16 THE PARTIES

17 4. Plaintiff, at all times relevant and as alleged herein, is a resident of the 18 County of Los Angeles. Plaintiff is a legally blind, visually impaired, handicapped 19 person, and a member of a protected class of individuals under the ADA, pursuant 20 to 42 U.S.C. § 12102(1)-(2), and the regulations implementing the ADA set forth 21 at 28 CFR §§ 36.101 et seq.

22 5. Defendant is a California limited liability company with its 23 headquarters in Los Angeles, California. Defendant’s servers for the website are in 24 the United States. Defendant conducts a large amount of its business in California.
25 The physical location where Defendant’s goods and services are sold to the public 26 constitutes a place of public accommodation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7)(B), 27 as Defendant owns, operates, and controls a brick-and-mortar restaurant.
28 Defendant’s restaurant provides to the public important goods and services.

Moreover, Defendant's website provides consumers access to the goods and services which Defendant offers in its brick-and-mortar restaurant. For example, Defendant's website allows consumers to find the restaurant's brick-and-mortar location and hours of operation, receive directions, order online for pickup and delivery from defendant's restaurant, purchase gift cards, make reservations at Defendant's restaurant, and order goods online from Defendant's minimart. Furthermore, in conjunction with the restaurant's reservation and ordering processes, Defendant's website also allows consumers to peruse Defendant's menu. Finally, Defendant's website allows consumers to access Defendant's Instagram, gather information about Defendant's stand-alone minimart, read Defendant's chefs' biographies, sign up for updates by submitting emails, and access Defendant's contact information.

6. Plaintiff is unaware of the true names, identities, and capacities of each Defendant sued herein as DOES 1 to 10. Plaintiff will seek leave to amend this complaint to allege the true names and capacities of DOES 1 to 10 if and when ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereupon alleges, that each Defendant sued herein as a DOE is legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings alleged herein and that each Defendant sued herein as a DOE proximately caused injuries and damages to Plaintiff as set forth below.

7. Defendant's restaurant is a public accommodation within the definition of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7)(B).

8. The website provides access to the goods, services, privileges, and advantages of Defendant's brick-and-mortar location, a place of public accommodation, by allowing consumers to make reservations for Defendant's restaurant, purchase gift cards, and order online.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District. Defendant has been and continues to commit the acts or omissions alleged herein in the Central

1 District of California, that caused injury, and violated rights prescribed by the ADA 2 and UCRA, to Plaintiff. A substantial part of the acts and omissions giving rise to 3 Plaintiff's claims occurred in the Central District of California. Specifically, on 4 several separate occasions, Plaintiff has been denied the full use and enjoyment of 5 the facilities, goods, and services of Defendant's website in Los Angeles County.
6 The access barriers Plaintiff has encountered on Defendant's website have caused 7 a denial of Plaintiff's full and equal access multiple times in the past and now deter 8 Plaintiff on a regular basis from accessing Defendant's website. Similarly, the 9 access barriers Plaintiff has encountered on Defendant's website have impeded 10 Plaintiff's full and equal enjoyment of goods and services offered at Defendant's 11 brick-and-mortar location.

12 10. This Court also has subject-matter jurisdiction over this action 13 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 42 U.S.C. § 12181, as Plaintiff's claims arise 14 under Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181, et seq. and 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

15 11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because it 16 conducts and continues to conduct a substantial and significant amount of business 17 in the State of California, County of Los Angeles, and because Defendant's 18 offending website is available across California.

19 12. Venue is proper in the Central District of California pursuant to 28 20 U.S.C. § 1391 because Plaintiff resides in this District, Defendant conducts and 21 continues to conduct a substantial and significant amount of business in this District, 22 Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District, and a substantial 23 portion of the conduct complained of herein occurred in this District.

24 13. Defendant owns, operates, and maintains a brick-and-mortar 25 restaurant location in the State of California. Defendant's brick-and-mortar 26 location offers goods and services to the public. Defendant also offers the very 27 goods and services that are offered in Defendant's place of public accommodation 28 to the public through the website. Defendant's brick-and-mortar restaurant location

1 is a place of public accommodation pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12181(7)(B), and 2 Defendant's website is subject to the ADA because it provides methods by which 3 consumers can access the goods and services offered in Defendant's restaurant, 4 which are inaccessible to Plaintiff, a disabled screen-reader user.

5 THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AND THE INTERNET

6 14. The Internet has become a significant source of information, a portal, 7 and a tool for conducting business, doing everyday activities such as shopping, 8 learning, banking, researching, as well as many other activities for sighted, blind, 9 and visually impaired persons alike.

10 15. In today's tech-savvy world, blind and visually impaired people have 11 the ability to access websites using keyboards in conjunction with screen access 12 software that vocalizes the visual information found on a computer screen. This 13 technology is known as screen-reading software. Screen-reading software is 14 currently the only method a blind or visually impaired person may use to 15 independently access the internet. Unless websites are designed to be read by 16 screen-reading software, blind and visually impaired persons are unable to fully 17 access websites, and the information, products, and services contained thereon.

18 16. Blind and visually impaired users of Windows operating system-19 enabled computers and devices have several screen-reading software programs 20 available to them. Some of these programs are available for purchase and other 21 programs are available without the user having to purchase the program separately.
22 Job Access With Speech, otherwise known as "JAWS," is currently the most 23 popular, separately purchased and downloaded screen-reading software program 24 available for a Windows computer.

25 17. For screen-reading software to function, the information on a website 26 must be capable of being rendered into text. If the website content is not capable 27 of being rendered into text, the blind or visually impaired user is unable to access 28 the same content available to sighted users.

18. The international website standards organization, the World Wide Web Consortium, known throughout the world as W3C, has published Success Criteria for version 2.1 of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines ("WCAG 2.1" hereinafter). WCAG 2.1 are well-established guidelines for making websites accessible to blind and visually impaired people. These guidelines are adopted, implemented, and followed by most large business entities who want to ensure their websites are accessible to users of screen-reading software programs. Though WCAG 2.1 has not been formally adopted as the standard for making websites accessible, it is one of, if not the most, valuable resource for companies to operate, maintain, and provide a website that is accessible under the ADA to the public. Plaintiff seeks Defendant comply with WCAG 2.1 as a remedy. Plaintiff does not premise Defendant's violations of the ADA nor the Unruh Act on violations of WCAG 2.1. However, the Department of Justice ("DOJ") has issued guidance on how to make web content accessible to people with disabilities. The DOJ's guidance provides that: "Existing technical standards provide helpful guidance concerning how to ensure accessibility of website features. These include [WCAG] and the Section 508 standards, which the federal government uses for its own websites."<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, although not a sole basis to premise violations of the ADA and the Unruh Act on, WCAG "provide helpful guidance concerning how to ensure accessibility of website features."

19. Within this context, the Ninth Circuit has recognized the viability of ADA claims against commercial website owners/operators with regard to the accessibility of such websites. Robles v. Domino's Pizza, LLC, 913 F.3d 898, 905-06 (9th Cir. 2019), cert. denied, 140 S.Ct. 122, 206 L. Ed. 2d 41 (2019). This is in addition to the numerous courts that have already recognized such application.

20. Each of Defendant's violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act is likewise a violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Indeed, the Unruh Civil Rights

1 Act provides that any violation of the ADA constitutes a violation of the Unruh 2 Civil Rights Act. Cal. Civ. Code § 51(f).

3 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4 21. Defendant offers the website to the public. The website offers features 5 which should allow all consumers to access the goods and services which Defendant 6 offers in connection with its physical location. The goods and services offered by 7 Defendant include, but are not limited to, the following: reservations, online 8 ordering, and gift card purchases. Consumers can also use the website to access 9 information regarding Defendant's location and hours, Defendant's menu options, 10 Defendant's social Instagram, Defendant's stand-alone minimart, Defendant's 11 chefs' biographies, and Defendant's contact details.

12 22. Due to Defendant's failure to properly code its website, Plaintiff has 13 been and is still being denied equal and full access to Defendant's restaurant and 14 the numerous goods, services, and benefits offered to the public through 15 Defendant's website in conjunction with Defendant's brick-and-mortar restaurant.

16 THE WEBSITE BARRIERS DENY PLAINTIFF ACCESS

17 23. Plaintiff is a visually impaired and legally blind person, who cannot 18 use a computer without the assistance of screen-reading software. However, 19 Plaintiff is a proficient user of JAWS and uses it to access the internet. Plaintiff has 20 visited <https://yangbanla.com/> on June 29, 2022, and June 30, 2022 using the JAWS 21 screen-reader. Plaintiff accessed the website on those dates to purchase a gift card.

22 24. During Plaintiff's visits to Defendant's website, Plaintiff encountered 23 multiple access barriers which denied Plaintiff full and equal access to the facilities, 24 goods, and services offered to the public and made available to the public on 25 Defendant's website. For example, Plaintiff, who desired to shop for a gift card, 26 could not as a result of Defendant's coding failures. To give some context, Plaintiff 27 uses her keyboard to navigate websites, as she is not sighted and cannot use a 28 mouse. Thus, in order for Defendant's website to be readable by Plaintiff's screen-

1 reader, Defendant must implement appropriate website coding practices so that the 2 nonvisual elements of Defendant's website can be read aloud by Plaintiff's screen-3 reader.

4 25. If Defendant had sufficiently coded the website to be readable by 5 Plaintiff's screen-reader and accessible with her keyboard, Plaintiff would have 6 been able to interact with these elements and purchase a gift card as a sighted person 7 could.

8 26. Accordingly, Plaintiff was denied the ability to access Defendant's 9 website and purchase a gift card, a service which Defendant provides through the 10 website in conjunction with its place of public accommodation, its restaurant, 11 because Defendant failed to have the proper procedures in place to ensure that 12 content uploaded to the website contains the proper coding to convey the meaning 13 and structure of the website and the goods and services provided by Defendant.

14 27. Due to the widespread access barriers Plaintiff encountered on 15 Defendant's website, Plaintiff has been deterred from accessing Defendant's 16 website and Defendant's restaurant.

17 28. Despite Plaintiff's attempts to do business with Defendant on its 18 website, the numerous access barriers contained on the website and encountered by 19 Plaintiff, have denied Plaintiff full and equal access to Defendant's website and 20 Defendant's restaurant. Plaintiff, as a result of the barriers on Defendant's website, 21 continues to be deterred from accessing Defendant's website and Defendant's 22 restaurant. Likewise, based on the numerous access barriers Plaintiff has been 23 deterred and impeded from the full and equal enjoyment of goods and services 24 offered in Defendant's restaurant.

25 DEFENDANT'S WEBSITE HAS A SUFFICIENT NEXUS TO 26 DEFENDANT'S RESTAURANT LOCATION TO SUBJECT THE 27 WEBSITE TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE ADA

28 29. Defendant's website is subject to the ADA because the goods and

1 services offered on the website are an extension of the goods and services offered 2 in Defendant's brick-and-mortar restaurant. For example, the goods and the 3 services which can be procured online are available for purchase in Defendant's 4 brick-and-mortar restaurant. Thus, since the website facilitates access to the goods 5 and services of a place of public accommodation, the website falls within the 6 protection of the ADA because the website connects customers to the goods and 7 services of Defendant's physical restaurant.

8 DEFENDANT MUST REMOVE BARRIERS TO ITS WEBSITE

9 30. Due to the inaccessibility of the Defendant's website, blind and 10 visually impaired customers such as Plaintiff, who need screen-readers, cannot fully 11 and equally use or enjoy the facilities and services Defendant offers to the public 12 on its website. The access barriers Plaintiff has encountered have caused a denial 13 of Plaintiff's full and equal access in the past and now deter Plaintiff on a regular 14 basis from accessing the website.

15 31. These access barriers on Defendant's website have deterred Plaintiff 16 from enjoying the goods and services of Defendant's brick-and-mortar restaurant 17 which are offered through Defendant's website in a full and equal manner to sighted 18 individuals. Plaintiff intends to visit the Defendant's website and restaurant in the 19 near future if Plaintiff could access Defendant's website as a sighted person can.

20 32. If the website were equally accessible to all, Plaintiff could 21 independently navigate the website and complete a desired transaction, as sighted 22 individuals do.

23 33. Plaintiff, through Plaintiff's attempts to use the website, has actual 24 knowledge of the access barriers that make these services inaccessible and 25 independently unusable by blind and visually impaired people.

26 34. The Defendant uses standards, criteria or methods of administration 27 that have the effect of discriminating or perpetuating the discrimination against 28 others, as alleged herein.

1           35. The ADA expressly contemplates the injunctive relief that Plaintiff 2 seeks in this action. In relevant part, the ADA requires:

3           In the case of violations of ... this title, injunctive relief shall include 4 an order to alter facilities to make such facilities readily accessible to 5 and usable by individuals with disabilities .... Where appropriate, 6 injunctive relief shall also include requiring the ... modification of a 7 policy .... 42 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(2).

8           36. Because Defendant's website has never been equally accessible, and 9 because Defendant lacks a corporate policy that is reasonably calculated to cause 10 the Defendant's website to become and remain accessible, Plaintiff invokes 42 11 U.S.C. § 12188(a)(2) and seeks a permanent injunction requiring the Defendant to 12 retain a qualified consultant acceptable to Plaintiff to assist Defendant to comply 13 with WCAG 2.1 guidelines for Defendant's website. The website must be 14 accessible for individuals with disabilities who use desktop computers, laptops, 15 tablets, and smartphones. Plaintiff seeks that this permanent injunction require 16 Defendant to cooperate with the agreed-upon consultant to: train Defendant's 17 employees and agents who develop the website on accessibility compliance under 18 the WCAG 2.1 guidelines; regularly check the accessibility of the website under 19 the WCAG 2.1 guidelines; regularly test user accessibility by blind or vision-20 impaired persons to ensure that the Defendant's website complies under the WCAG 21 2.1 guidelines; and develop an accessibility policy that is clearly disclosed on the 22 Defendant's website, with contact information for users to report accessibility-23 related problems and require that any third-party vendors who participate on the 24 Defendant's website to be fully accessible to the disabled by conforming with 25 WCAG 2.1.

26           37. If Defendant's website were accessible, Plaintiff could independently 27 access information about the services offered and goods available for online 28 purchase through Defendant's website and purchase a gift card online.

1 38. Although Defendant may currently have centralized policies regarding 2 maintaining and operating Defendant's website, Defendant lacks a plan and policy 3 reasonably calculated to make Defendant's website fully and equally accessible to, 4 and independently usable by, blind and other visually impaired consumers.

5 39. Defendant has, upon information and belief, invested substantial sums 6 in developing and maintaining Defendant's website, and Defendant has generated 7 significant revenue from Defendant's website. These amounts are far greater than 8 the associated cost of making Defendant's website equally accessible to visually 9 impaired customers.

10 40. Without injunctive relief, Plaintiff will continue to be unable to 11 independently use Defendant's website, violating her rights.

12 COUNT I

13 VIOLATIONS OF THE AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT, 42

14 U.S.C. § 12181 *ET SEQ.

15 41. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every 16 allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 40, inclusive, of this Complaint as if 17 set forth fully herein.

18 42. Section 302(a) of Title III of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq., 19 provides: "No individual shall be discriminated against on the basis of disability in 20 the full and equal enjoyment of the goods, services, facilities, privileges, 21 advantages, or accommodations of any place of public accommodation by any 22 person who owns, leases (or leases to), or operates a place of public 23 accommodation." 42 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

24 43. Under Section 302(b)(2) of Title III of the ADA, unlawful 25 discrimination also includes, among other things: "a failure to make reasonable 26 modifications in policies, practices, or procedures, when such modifications are 27 necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 28 accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can demonstrate

1 that making such modifications would fundamentally alter the nature of such goods, 2 services, facilities, privileges, advantages or accommodations”; and “a failure to 3 take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no individual with a disability is 4 excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise treated differently than other 5 individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services, unless the entity 6 can demonstrate that taking such steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the 7 good, service, facility, privilege, advantage, or accommodation being offered or 8 would result in an undue burden.” 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii). “A public 9 accommodation shall take those steps that may be necessary to ensure that no 10 individual with a disability is excluded, denied services, segregated or otherwise 11 treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids 12 and services, unless the public accommodation can demonstrate that taking those 13 steps would fundamentally alter the nature of the goods, services, facilities, 14 privileges, advantages, or accommodations being offered or would result in an 15 undue burden, i.e., significant difficulty or expense.” 28 C.F.R. § 36.303(a). In 16 order to be effective, auxiliary aids and services must be provided in accessible 17 formats, in a timely manner, and in such a way as to protect the privacy and 18 independence of the individual with a disability.” 28 C.F.R. § 36.303(c)(1)(ii).

19 44. Defendant’s location is a “public accommodation” within the meaning 20 of 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq. Upon information and belief, Defendant generates 21 millions of dollars in revenue from the sale of its amenities and services, privileges, 22 advantages, and accommodations in California through its location, related 23 services, privileges, advantages, and accommodations, and its website, 24 <https://yangbanla.com/>, is a service, privilege, advantage, and accommodation
 25 provided by Defendant that is inaccessible to customers who are visually impaired
 26 like Plaintiff. This inaccessibility denies visually impaired customers full and equal 27 enjoyment of and access to the facilities and services, privileges, advantages, and 28 accommodations that Defendant makes available to the non-disabled public.

1 Defendant is violating the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et 2 seq., in that Defendant denies visually impaired customers the services, privileges, 3 advantages, and accommodations provided by <https://yangbanla.com/>. These 4 violations are ongoing.

5 45. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 12188 and the remedies, procedures, and rights 6 set forth and incorporated therein, Plaintiff requests relief as set forth below.

7 COUNT II

8 VIOLATIONS OF THE UNRUH CIVIL RIGHTS ACT, CALIFORNIA 9 CIVIL CODE § 51 *ET SEQ.

10 46. Plaintiff alleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every 11 allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 45, inclusive, of this Complaint as if 12 set forth fully herein.

13 47. Defendant's location is a "business establishment" within the meaning 14 of the California Civil Code § 51 et seq. Upon information and belief, Defendant 15 generates millions of dollars in revenue from the sale of its services in California 16 through its location and related services, and <https://yangbanla.com/> is a service
 17 provided by Defendant that is inaccessible to customers who are visually impaired
 18 like Plaintiff. This inaccessibility denies visually impaired customers full and equal 19 access to Defendant's facilities and services that Defendant makes available to the 20 non-disabled public. Defendant is violating the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California 21 Civil Code § 51 et seq., in that Defendant is denying visually impaired customers 22 the services provided by <https://yangbanla.com/>. These violations are ongoing.

23 48. Defendant is also violating the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California 24 Civil Code § 51 et seq. in that the conduct alleged herein likewise constitutes a 25 violation of various provisions of the ADA, 42 U.S.C. § 12101 et seq. Section 51(f) 26 of the California Civil Code provides that a violation of the right of any individual 27 under the ADA shall also constitute a violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act.

28 49. The actions of Defendant were and are in violation of the Unruh Civil 1 Rights Act, California Civil Code § 51 et seq., and, therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to 2 injunctive relief remedying the discrimination.

3 50. Plaintiff is also entitled to statutory minimum damages pursuant to 4 California Civil Code § 52 for each and every offense.

5 51. Plaintiff is also entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

6 52. Plaintiff is also entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction 7 enjoining Defendant from violating the Unruh Civil Rights Act, California Civil 8 Code § 51 et seq., and requiring Defendant to take the steps necessary to make 9 <https://yangbanla.com/> readily accessible to and usable by visually impaired 10 individuals.

11 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

12 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment 13 in her favor and against Defendant as follows:

- 14 A. A preliminary and permanent injunction pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 15 12188(a)(1) and (2) and section 52.1 of the California Civil Code 16 enjoining Defendant from violating the Unruh Civil Rights Act and 17 ADA and requiring Defendant to take the steps necessary to make 18 <https://yangbanla.com/> readily accessible to and usable by visually-19 impaired individuals;
- 20 B. An award of statutory minimum damages of $4,000 per offense 21 pursuant to section 52(a) of the California Civil Code.
- 22 C. For attorneys' fees and expenses pursuant to California Civil Code §§ 23 52(a), 52.1(h), and 42 U.S.C. § 12205;
- 24 D. For pre-judgment interest to the extent permitted by law;
- 25 E. For costs of suit; and
- 26 F. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

27 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

28 Plaintiff, on behalf of herself, hereby demands a jury trial for all claims so
